

The Order Of The Kingdom

An Excerpt on 'Dominion in Fruitfulness'

God never blesses unfruitfulness. If you study Old Testament teaching, a woman that was barren could not enter into the presence of the Lord. A woman while she was on her monthly period was not allowed to touch anything because that's the point when she was the most unproductive. She could not get pregnant even if she tried. And anyone or anything that she touched, was made unclean because that was the impartation of unproductiveness. God only blesses fruitful things. Of all the things that we have to be in the Kingdom, we have to be fruitful.

So now let's go to the keynote Scriptures in Genesis 1:27. The Bible says in [verse] 26 that God created man in His image [and] after His likeness, and God gave the man dominion – over fish of the sea, and over every creeping thing.

*So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them,
Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion...*

Genesis 1:27 – 28

And God blessed them – not him, them. They got equal blessing. Male and female got equal blessing. God never put the man here and spoke the blessing on the man, and then came here and addressed the women and gave her a lesser blessing. They got exactly the same blessing. They got exactly the same blessing, and this is what he blessed them to be.

1. Fruitful.
2. Multiply your fruitfulness. Take what you've multiplied to an area that doesn't have your fruitfulness.
3. Replenish that area with your fruitfulness.
4. When you saturate an area with your fruitfulness, your fruitfulness will subdue that area. That whole area will then become subservient to your fruitfulness.
5. And then you will have dominion.

So, let's put in terms of, let's say, Toyota. Toyota then, which is a Japanese motor vehicle company, goes to Mexico. There are no Toyotas there, and Mexico's enjoying an American market – you've got GM there, you have Ford, Chrysler, and all the other stuff you all can choose from up here. So Toyota goes to Mexico. The first thing they are going to do in Mexico is they are going to be fruitful. In other words, they are going to produce Toyotas. Then they are going to multiply Toyotas, and they are going to take Toyotas to every city where there's no Toyotas. So they are going to replenish the cities with what they don't have.

And when people start seeing Toyotas, the Toyota product is going to start taking dominion because if you put a Toyota engine against your Ford engine your Ford engine is only good for 100,000 miles. Then it starts coughing blood. But those Toyota engines, you can get 300,000 miles and they still want to go. So, that Toyota engine now, starts subduing the market and they start taking dominion. So after five [or] ten years, folks don't want your big gas guzzlers. They want a Toyota. It's a principle. It's true with Sony cameras. It's true with IBM computers. Watch the MAC computers. In just a short space of time, everybody everywhere is going to want a MAC. I wonder if I want one, but everybody's going to want a MAC because of the principle.

And the reason the church and the reason believers don't have dominion is because we never multiply our fruitfulness. We never take our fruitfulness into areas that don't have our product. Therefore, we never subdue that area. And that's why we don't have dominion.

If you take American Airlines as an airline, the reason it does not have strength and dominion in the markets of Asia and in the markets of Europe is because American doesn't operate there. But if American Airlines got the licence to go to Europe and to Asia with the kind of stuff you do on time, ..., and you start filling that market with your fruitfulness, it's just a matter of time that some of those airlines will be squeezed out of the market. Fruitfulness will always produce dominion. Fruitfulness will always produce dominion – whether it's your church, whether it's a business, whether it's your life, whether it's a football team. Fruitfulness will always produce dominion.
